The Sporting Life: The Art of Joseph H. Sulkowski

The Sporting Life is a celebration of gundogs and horses, hunting and fishing as expressed through the rich and exuberant paintings of Joseph Sulkowski. Acclaimed as one of America's premier dog and sporting artists, Sulkowski shares his personal conversation with the outdoor life in a style of Poetic Realism. Influenced and guided by the hands of the Old Masters, he creates fluid brushstrokes that imbue his canvases with a compelling blend of light, atmosphere, and spatial effects that bring his passion for the sporting life into vivid focus for the viewer.

Whether it's still-lives, dog paintings, or scenes of hunters and anglers, Joseph Sulkowski derives his inspiration from personal contact with the natural world. He carries out his visions through a lifelong discipline to his craft in which hand-ground paints, carefully prepared oils and varnishes, and handcrafted linen canvases and gessoed panels play a vital role in the quality of each work of art.

All this and more about the immensely gifted artist is detailed by author Brooke Chilvers, one of the foremost experts on wildlife and sporting art. Altogether, the large-format, 240-page book features more than 180 paintings and dozens of sketches.

Collector's Edition: Hardcover book with dust jacket. $60

Deluxe Edition: 350 leather-bound books signed & numbered by Joseph Sulkowski. $90

Introducing . . .

OUR SPORTING CLASSICS BRASS BIG BOY RIFLE

Made entirely in America of all-American materials, the Henry rifle is an authentic link to our country's past. From the steamboat to the airplane, there have been countless inventions that have changed the course of our history. The Henry rifle is one of them. Since its founding in 1997, Henry Repeating Arms Company has continued to produce rifles with the same quality and craftsmanship of those history-making repeaters. Which is why we asked them to build a rifle just for Sporting Classics.

Our new Sporting Classics Brass Big Boy Rifle showcases special engraving on its brightly polished and hardened receiver. Available in four calibers—.30-30, .44 Mag., .45 Long Colt, and .357 Mag.—the rifle's 20-inch, traditional octagon steel barrel features brass fittings and a fully adjustable, semi-buckhorn rear sight with diamond insert. The straight-grip stock is fashioned from American walnut. Each rifle will have its own serial number, starting from SC001. Please allow 10-12 weeks for delivery.

Lynn Bogue Hunt: Angler, Hunter, Artist

Acclaimed wildlife artist Lynn Bogue Hunt, who illustrated more national magazine covers than any other artist in history, is the focus of a beautiful new coffee-table book from Sporting Classics.

Angler, hunter, and above all artist, Lynn Bogue Hunt was America's most popular and prolific outdoor illustrator of the mid-20th century—the “Golden Age” of the American outdoors. He painted a record 106 covers for Field & Stream; illustrated dozens of books on waterfowling, upland bird hunting, and saltwater fishing; designed the 1939-40 Federal Duck Stamp; and was described by his friend Ernest Hemingway as “the finest painter of game birds that we have in America.”

Lynn Bogue Hunt—Angler, Hunter, Artist showcases the complete collection of Hunt paintings acquired by New Jersey sportsman Paul Vartanian. Not only is it the world's largest collection of Hunt paintings, drawings, and memorabilia, but it's the largest and most complete collection of the work of any major sporting artist.

Featuring a fascinating text by Sporting Classics Senior Editor Tom Davis, this big 9x12-inch book showcases some 150 iconic images that will thrill Hunt fans and be a revelation to those less familiar with this legendary artist.

Collector's Edition: Hardcover book with dust jacket. $60

Deluxe Edition: 500 leather-bound books, signed & numbered by Paul Vartanian. $90

The Greatest Quail Hunting Book Ever

It's not just the title; it's the perfect description of its contents.

A big covey of great American authors are showcased in this fascinating, 368-page anthology featuring 38 stories from those halcyon days when sporting gentlemen pursued the noble bobwhite quail with their favorite shotguns and elegant canine companions.

The book opens with compelling tales by the literary giants from quail hunting's golden era, including Nash Buckingham, Robert Ruark, Havilah Babcock, Archibald Rutledge, and Horatio Bigelow.

The second section presents reminiscences by sporting scribes of the modern era, among them Jack O'Connor, Gene Hill, Joseph Greenfield, Dave Henderson, and Mike Gaddis. The third section is comprised of unforgettable short stories on quail hunting and bird dogs by James Street, Bob Matthews, Dan O'Brien, and Caroline Gordon.

Collector's Edition: Hardcover book with dust jacket. $35

Our Newest Knife of the Year Presentation – A Beautiful Two-Knife Set By Africa's Arno Bernard

For our 2018 Sporting Classics Knife of the Year, Arno Bernard Knives of Bethlehem, South Africa, is handcrafting a wonderful two-knife set.

Our African Hunter pairs up a Bohler N690 stainless-steel blade with a handle fashioned from warthog ivory. Measuring just over 7½ inches overall with a hollow-ground, drop-point blade of 3½ inches, this knife will serve equally well for field-dressing game or just to stimulate daydreams of Africa. The stunning crème-to-caramel coloring and subtle striations in the ivory combine to make each knife unique.

Our African Bush Knife can be your go-to blade for every sort of camp chore. Measuring 9¾ inches, it features a 5¾-inch clip-point blade of Bohler N690 stainless steel that is heat-treated to 59-60c Rockwell. The 4½-inch handle is made of rich African blackwood.

African Hunter: $325

African Bush Knife: $390

Two-Knife Set: $700

Each knife comes with a wrist thong hole complete with braided-leather “pigtail.” The blades are finished to a warm, hand-rubbed luster and carry the maker's distinctive mark on the face side and “SC 1 of 75” on the reverse. Each knife is accompanied by a hand-fitted, top-grade leather sheath.

Twenty of each model will be available for immediate delivery beginning on October 1. Subsequent orders will be filled in six to eight weeks.

Three Great Books by Artist John Seerey-Lester The Legendary Hunts of Theodore Roosevelt

THE LEGENDARY HUNTS OF THEODORE ROOSEVELT

The much-anticipated third book in artist John Seerey-Lester's "Legends Series" relives in words and paint the exciting outdoor life of Theodore Roosevelt.

With his descriptive text and 150 paintings and sketches, Seerey-Lester provides a fascinating glimpse into the former president's life and his unrelenting passion for wildlife, hunting, exploration, and conservation.

The large-format, 200-page book covers Roosevelt's most active years as an outdoorsman from the 1870s until his death in 1919. It also relives the hunting and exploratory expeditions of his two sons in the Far East.

In the foreword for this landmark book, Tweed Roosevelt, TR's great-grandson, writes: "Seerey-Lester has an extraordinary ability to bring to life the high drama of the hunt. TR, of course, could supply him with an almost unending series of opportunities for displaying his unique artistry."

TIMOTHY HUTTO KNIVES

Timothy (Bubba) Hutto of Springfield, South Carolina, has always had a love for knifemaking, though it wasn't until a year ago that he fashioned his first blade. On several occasions over the years he was able to watch legendary knifemaker George Herron in his shop in Springfield, where the master bladesmith created his beautiful works of art.

Influenced by Herron, Bubba handcrafts his stainless-steel blades, which are meticulously heat-treated and tempered. For his handles he uses blackwood, rosewood, bird's-eye maple, cherry, black walnut, and bone. His knife styles include straight points, drop points, skinners, fillets, and recurves. All five of these knives reflect designs created by master knifemaker George Herron. Please allow 6 to 8 weeks for delivery.

Chesapeake Bay, Eastern Shore, Virginia

Corratock is an 1,100-acre private preserve with 10.8 miles of shoreline. This property encompasses a private, 2.5-mile stretch of sandy beach on Chesapeake Bay's Eastern Shore. It is bounded by Nandua Creek to the north and Craddock Creek to the south.

An extremely rare, well-located property at an incredible price, Corratock offers unparalleled boating, fishing, crabbing, waterfowling, and upland game hunting.

Located on the Atlantic flyway, Corratock supports one of the largest contiguous marsh habitats found in the area. With many ponds and 3 acres of impoundments, the property offers some of the best waterfowling in coastal Virginia.

Pristine waters harbor soft shell crabs and bait fish hiding from huge rockfish, speckled trout, red and black drum, and flounder.

Two waterfront cabins provide a view of Baltimore-bound ships and watermen working the bay. From 40 feet up, "Tower Cabin" gives you a view of the bay and the property. The fully appointed "Beach Cabin" sleeps 8 and has a dock that stretches into the bay.

Back Creek, located in the interior of Corratock, contains a 100-acre oyster lease, which will transfer with the property and can be developed as an aquaculture business.

Corratock is less than a 4-hour drive from Richmond, Annapolis, Baltimore, and Washington DC, and a 6-hour drive from New York City. Fly into Accomack County's airport in Melfa, which has a 5000' runway, and you can be at Corratock in 15 minutes.

Along with two waterfront cabins, this property includes Teackle House, a historic (circa 1780) modernized, 5-bedroom waterfront home, a boat ramp, and five docks. One of the finest properties we've ever offered, Corratock is priced at $3,150,000. For more photos and a video of the property, go to sportingclassicsdaily.com/corratock

Lake Nipissing, Canada

Four hours north of Niagara Falls on Lake Nipissing, a magnificent custom log home rests on 35 beautiful acres. A mile away is an optional 100 acres where whitetails, bear, moose and turkeys roam. Grouse are plentiful, and ducks frequent nearby marshes and shallows. The two parcels can be bought separately, or together.

Yards from the stunning log home a river flows over a 100-foot granite waterfall and into the bay to provide spawning grounds for walleye and smallmouth. Walleye, muskie, bass, and pike lurk in the surrounding waters.

A huge elk chandelier hangs above arched, 3 1/2-inch, 900-year-old cedar entry-way doors. The two-inch thick granite floors are from Parry Sound quarry. Most of the furniture remains with this home.

The spacious kitchen features 900-year-old cedar cabinets and GE Profile Stainless appliances. A guest bath is adjacent to the kitchen. Enjoy spectacular views of the lake from a deck that has retractable screens, a fireplace, and a gas grill. Just off the kitchen is a comfortable guest bedroom.

At the top of a half-log staircase is the comfortable master bedroom. A polar bear rug and a king-sized, hand-made cedar log bed lie on Heart Of Yellow Pine floors. The master bath and a walk-in cedar closet are steps away.

A huge basement provides storage and features a walk-in vault for your valuables.

Nearby, a matching log guest cabin will be sold mostly furnished as well. Here, three large ground-floor garage doors provide access to plenty of heated space for vehicles and toys. The second floor features a beautiful kitchen with eating island, log bed, comfortable dining and living areas, and a handsome bathroom.

Off the main room is a second room that could be used as a child's bedroom. Sliding doors lead to a private, glass-enclosed deck. The view from this deck can be in excess of 25 miles! In back are five fenced dog kennels.

A 16KW generator automatically provides electricity if power is interrupted.

Prices reduced! Home and 35 acres: $5,490,000 USD.

Dividable 100 acres: $1,490,000 USD

Pine Grove Plantation, South Carolina

Pine Grove Plantation, birthplace of the Boykin spaniel, is located near Camden. The 197.47-acre property has been meticulously maintained and features a fully-restored historic 4-bedroom, 3.5-bath home. Inside you'll find 14' ceilings, 8 working fireplaces and heartpine flooring. The kitchen is updated with granite countertops and a large island with a sitting area around a fireplace. Expansive open porches grace 3 sides of the home. In front, a beautiful 9-acre stocked pond is home to bass, bream, ducks, and geese. A guest house and two barns are also located on the property, which features a horse pasture, dove field, quail woods, loblolly pines, hardwood bottomland, and a pecan orchard. Pine Grove is an ideal setting for horseback riding, fishing or hunting deer, turkey, duck, and quail. Peaceful, spacious, private, and historic. $2,850,000.
